CLUB NEWS

2006 SOCIAL CALENDAR—The information for the 2006 Social Calendar will be sent to the printer soon. Please make an effort to inform us of any changes. Call or e-mail the Club at 337-0603 or misco@up.net.

ITALIAN PARTY—A big thank you to Phyllis and Tony Locatelli & committee for their efforts in making January's "Italian Night" so wonderful. The music, provided by George Butala & Bob Masnado, and a bountiful Italian buffet, prepared by Chef Ken Steiner, was enjoyed by 97 Miscowaubik members & guests.

STAFF PARTY—We are aware that many of our members are out of the area at this time of year. So if you are with us, please make an effort to attend the "Meet the Staff" party on the 25th.

FRENCH TWIST—Mark your calendar for March 11, the date of the annual Gourmet Dinner. The Murtaghs & Fays will be planning another very special evening at the Club—details in the March newsletter.

!NEW LOOK—Thanks to the generosity of Miscowaubik member, John Jilbert, the Club is owner of some beautiful pieces of furniture. His contribution consisted of a Baby Grand Piano, two dining tables, a buffet, a sidecar and a China cabinet all of which compliment the décor of the Club. Once again, thank you so much, Mr. Jilbert for thinking of the Miscowaubik Club!!

TREAT YOUR SWEETIE—The Miscowaubik Club will be available for dinner on the evening of February 14, Valentine's Day. Give us a call & make arrangements to come in for dinner.

OOPS! - Under member news in January regarding Bay Cliff Summer Camp, we forgot to list to Mike Cischke's involvement in the new housing project for family volunteers. Such a worthy effort by all!!

SUNDAY BRUNCH—As you can see by the insert, the Sunday Brunch will continue.....as long as attendance warrants. So if you enjoy our Sunday Brunch, please let us know by being here on Sunday & encourage fellow members to at-
